CAROL LACKEY

Carol,
 Its been a heckuva year hasn't it? You've been a real friend. Thats a big not compliment because there is not too many people on the '82 cygnosura staff that I like. You are the only senior who would talk to me without being a snob (except Janet).
 In just a few days you'll be graduating and I might not see you again so "cheers".
 Have a good summer. Don't get too rowdy at college. Just keep living you and live like the fullest.

Carol,
 Its been great having all your Senior Wisdom in Chemistry. Never forget trying to burn up the lab tables &
 the fun we had.
 Good luck in your future
 and I hope your plans
 and dreams come true.
 Love, Denise

Carol, (over)
 We finally made it, girl.
 Thanks so much for all the friendship you have given me. I love you very much & would do anything for you.
 Wait until you know that. I think you are a fine young Christian lady & I hope about it respect your! Stay committed you are. I hope that I have contributed something to your happiness. Just you we happy in all that you do. Just you that God loves you & I do too!
 Love always,

Carol,

Well, I didn't think we would make it through this year, but it looks like we're going to. Though we weren't that close at the beginning of the year, I'm glad now that you have become a friend that I can talk to. I hope we can always keep in touch. Thanks for understanding my problems. And someday, when you + "MOOSE" (dude!) are married, I want you to name your first 6 kids after me!

P.S. I know that you are really going to hate having to leave "Miller", but, please, try not to cry all over your gown at Graduation!!!

Carol,

We've had quite a few good times this year, what little of it I spent here. I can't ever recall having a bad experience with you, except with the car + the cow posture. I really am sorry we couldn't stay together but as you know I am untamed and just a little wild. I still would like to see you from time to time.

Mayor of Pickersville

Wayne Kahl is the Mayor of Pickersville, a little town one mile south of the Wilkes County line on highway 115. It consists of a population of 26 people. Wayne was chosen mayor three years ago in a community election at the Texaco station which is at the center of town. Wayne stated that the Fourth of July is the community's biggest season for visitors and he greets each one while dressed in formal attire that includes top hat and cane.

Preserving the Past

David Jordan is a member of the Civil War re-enactment troop. David joins others who have a similar love for the past by acting out past battles. He first became involved in this program when he went with his 8th grade history teacher to the Coolidge Plantation. David has traveled to Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, Georgia and Virginia. David finds this hobby very educational and encourages those who respect the past to join.

The American Way

Julia Christine Merkel is our exchange student from Northiem, West Germany. Julia is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson of Harmony. At North, she enjoys playing the flute in band and making friends. Julia stated that, "Being an exchange student is very challenging and rewarding."

1) Computerized grade cards lessened the work load for teachers and increased efficiency in record-keeping.

A Busy Lady

Ardele Koenig is a busy person at North. She works with schedules and report cards and says that the hardest part of her job is making the computer understand what she wants it to do. She also takes care of homeroom bulletins, disciplinary reports, study hall assignments, teacher load limitations and bus drivers' time sheets. At home, Mrs. Koenig enjoys cooking, sewing, walking and relaxing. She would like to work in a test kitchen for a big food company. Her motto is "Encourage without pushing." She has been married for 23 years and has three children: Angie, 20; Eric, 18; and Tom, 15.

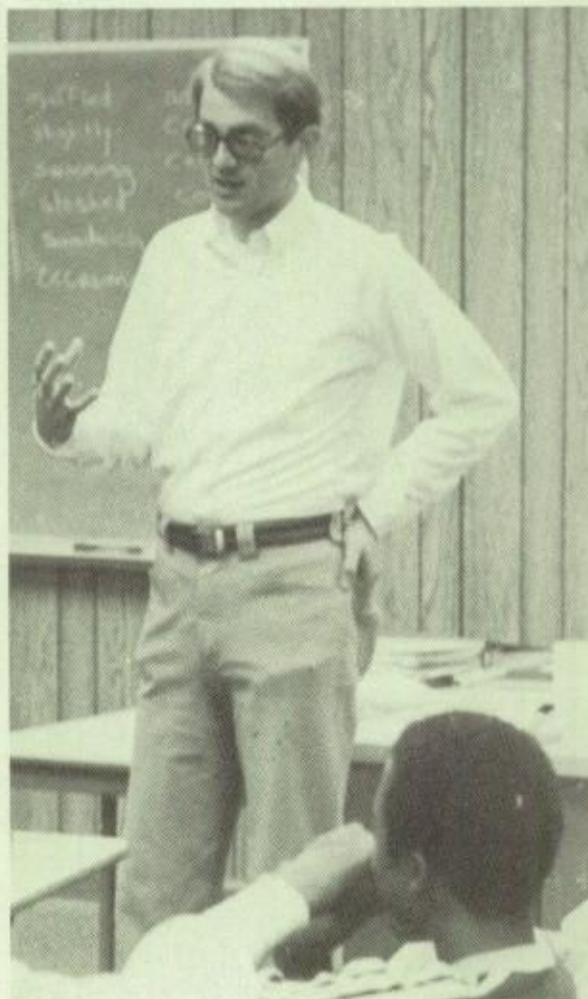

Outstanding Teacher Is Recognized

1982 Dedication

Coach Chip Weddington is an outstanding choice for the dedication of the 1982 yearbook. Mr. Weddington has been a teacher at North for seven years. He presently teaches special education and coaches basketball and football. His great love of laughter, exuberant personality and warmth make him an inspiration to all who know him.

An Unusual Hobby

Leola Harris spends some of her free time on an unusual hobby. She works math problems — for fun. She also plays the piano and organ and sings in the choir at church. If she were not a teacher, she would like to be in computers, "Because that's where the money is." Mrs. Harris encourages students to take every possible math course because, "It's better to have and not need than to need and not have." Her husband is Jordan C. Harris, Jr. and they have a daughter, Rhonda. She also has a German Shepherd, Kojak, and a Belgian Shepherd, Angel.

Our All-American Kid

On September 18, 1981, North Iredell lost more than a football game. We lost the services of one of the greatest runningbacks on the east coast, David Chambers. David suffered an injury of torn muscles and ligaments to his left knee which forced him to sit out the remainder of the season. This, according to David, was the most disappointing event of his football career.

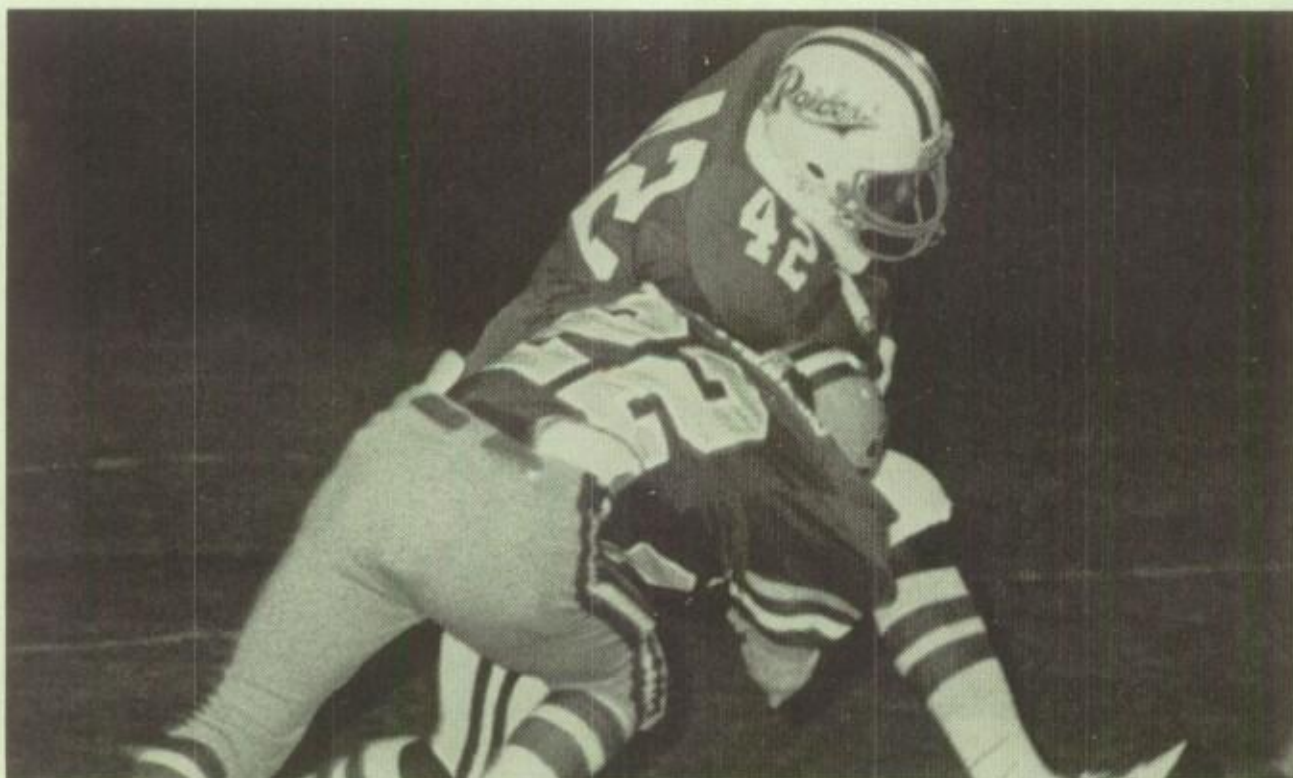

David's career has been filled with some outstanding feats. A few are: All Conference, All County, Conference Player of the Year, and Iredell County Offensive Player of the Year. He has been named to the Charlotte Observer All Piedmont Team twice, and also to the Winston-Salem Journal All Western N.C. Team. David holds the school records for individual season and career rushing and scoring. Had he been able to complete his final season of high school football, David would have been a leading candidate to play in the Shrine Bowl, East-West, or North-South games.

David plans to continue his education and football career in college. His interests are leaning toward Clemson, U.N.C., Wake Forest, or Georgia Tech. David's potential is seen by many as being unlimited. Don't be at all surprised if you hear more about this young man in the future.

Raider Season In Review

North Iredell has been known as a powerhouse on the basketball court in past years and this season proved to be no exception. Both varsity teams spent time in the spotlight by claiming spots within the state's top-ten rankings of 3-A schools on various occasions. Coach Chip Weddington's varsity boys set a new school record by beginning the season with 9 wins and 0 losses. Also, both varsity teams took second place honors at the WSIC Holiday Tournament, while Dionne Colbert and Amy Cartner were named to the All-Tournament team.

Robert Baker . . . Leader Of the Pack

Robert Baker possesses the qualities that exemplify a true athlete: dedication, the willingness to practice hours every day, and a desire to be the best. These are contributing factors to Robert's great success in track and cross country.

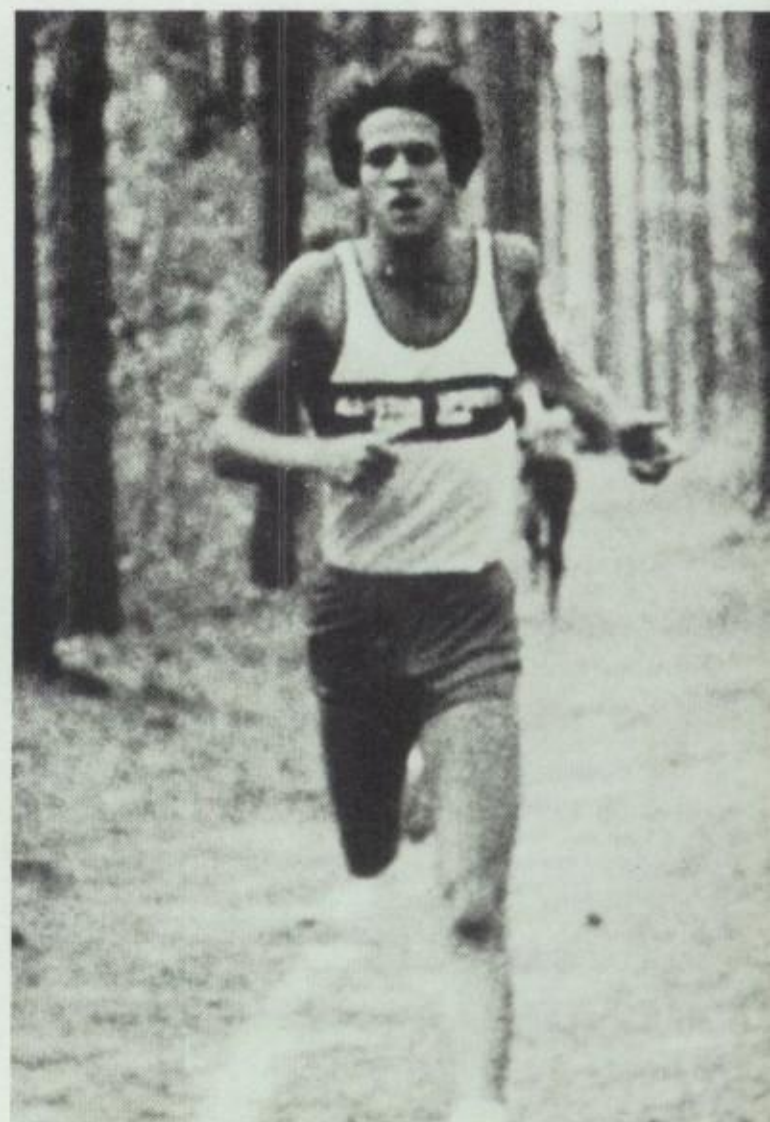

Robert began competitive running in the eighth grade because it provided him with a challenge and a chance to prove that he could become somebody. Since that time Robert has set innumerable records in both track and cross country. He has been named All-Conference, All-

State, two time state champion in the two-mile, and cross country state champion, just to name a few. Robert says that his greatest joy lies in being named fourth in the nation.

Traveling is a big part of Robert's routine. He has been to such places as Maryland, St. Louis, Atlanta, Columbia, S.C., Tennessee, and Jamaica. In the fall, Robert will enter N.C. State University where he hopes to participate in their track program. After college he hopes to become a professional marathoner.

Art Reveals New Talent

The art students have been extremely active. Some of their projects have been painting the school van, lettering the activity buses, and keeping the cafeteria bulletin board up-to-date and colorful.

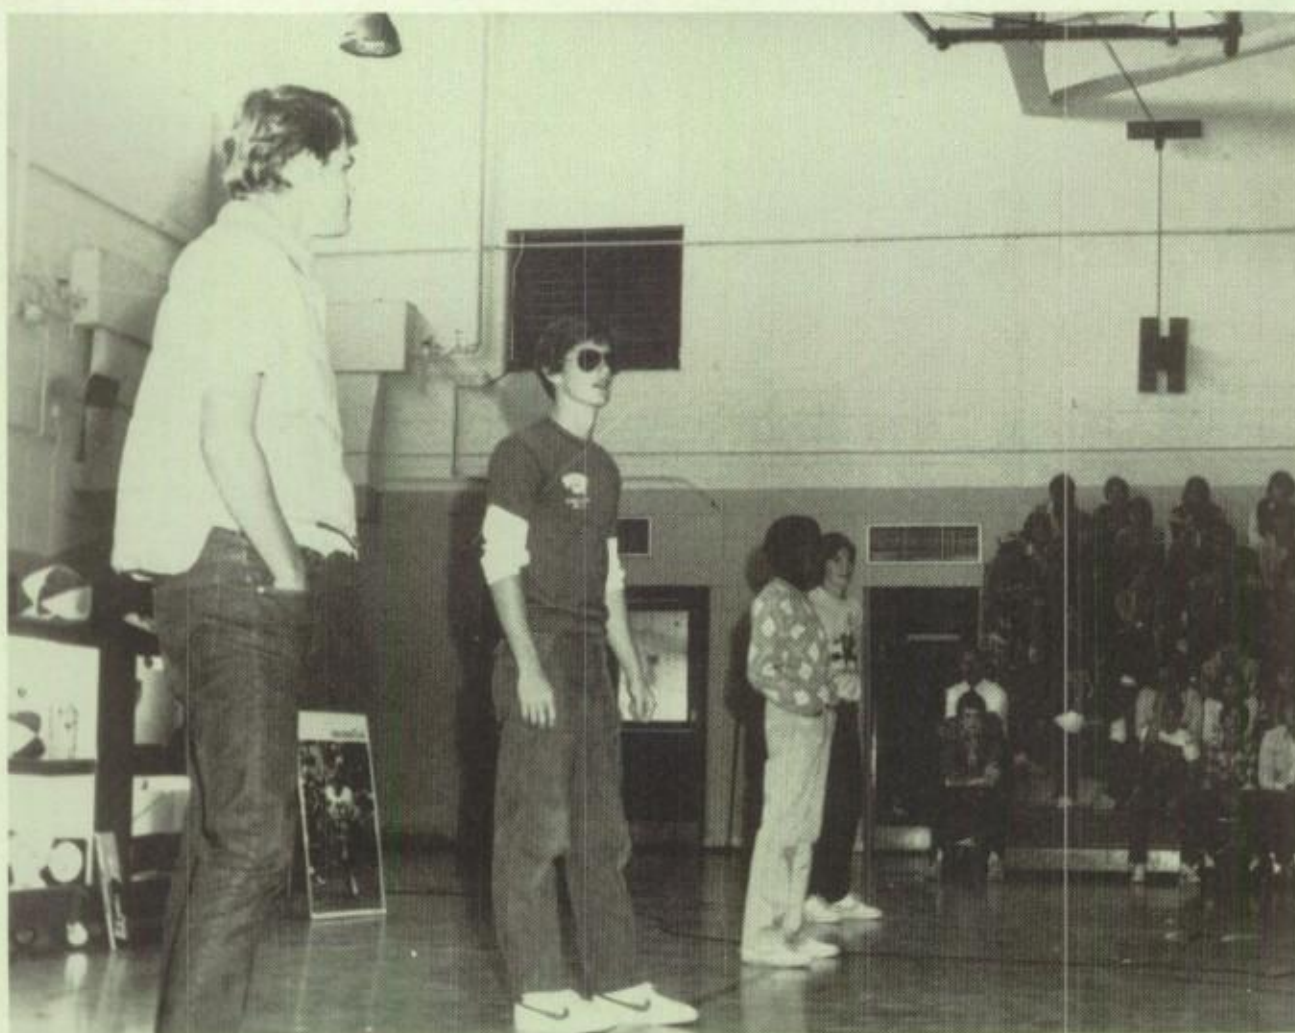

Magazine Campaign Is Great Success

Magazine sales soared to a grand total of $17,104.92. Our outstanding salesperson was Dirk Robertson who brought in a total of $501.54 and earned himself a stereo. Students had an opportunity to win prizes by selling magazines. Money that they helped raise went to the clubs and organizations of their choice.

"All the World's a Stage"

At the Exceptional Children's Art Festival, drama students presented many children's stories and poems. After much preparation, drama students combined talents to give an outstanding showing in Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol." They especially enjoyed presenting a scene on a local television station from the play.

Clubs Are on the Rise

Clubs have been an active force in the school and community this year. For example, the Key Club and Keywanettes helped the Salvation Army by ringing bells during the Christmas season. The FCS continued sharing their Christian beliefs through regular meetings and guest speakers. The Ecology Club cleaned and improved the courtyard and cleaned chimneys in the community.

Contestant Number 16

Chris Fox

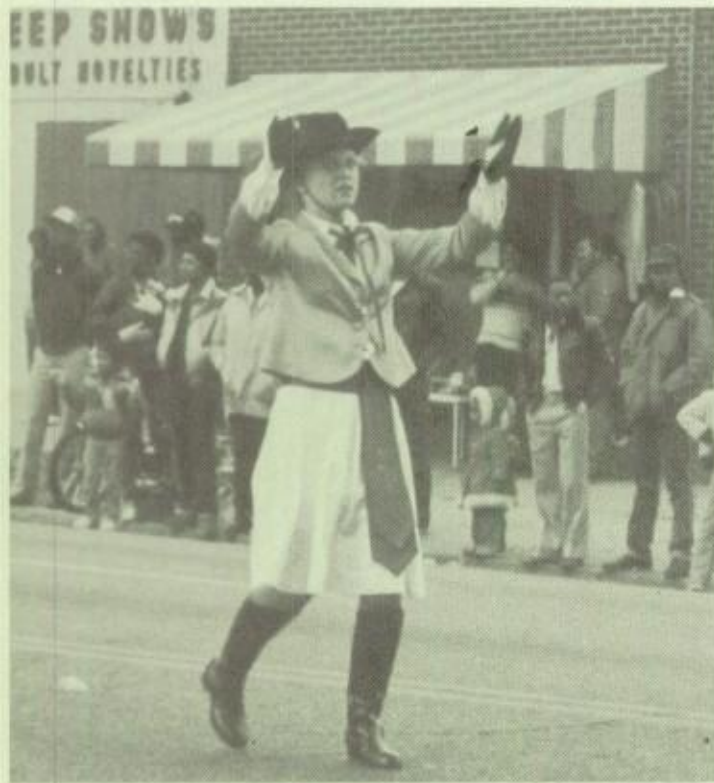

November 21, 1981 is a day that Chris Fox will never forget. This was the day she was crowned Miss North Iredell. Chris' first words were, "What do I do now?"

The daughter of Jerry and Janet Fox, Chris is very active at North. She is a member of Art, VICA, Clogging Team, and secretary of the Keywanettes.

Some of Chris' duties as queen include being a visiting queen at various pageants and representing North in local parades. She feels this experience has enriched her life.

Christmas Comes But Once a Year

Christmas was highlighted by many special events including a party for faculty children sponsored by the Family Living classes, a door decoration contest sponsored by FBLA, and the Statesville Christmas Parade.

Senior Moments Are Breathtaking

1) Kent Millsaps and Tommy McLain show off their piercing abilities. 2) Hat Day brings out the best in these ladies. 3) Karen Godfrey day-dreams about Christmas and chocolate-covered cherries. 4) Mark Isenhour finds out that the dating game is not all that it is cracked up to be. 5) Tyrone Redmon and Mark Wellman plead with Brian Bell for just a lousy quarter for ice cream.

Our Future Politician

The president of the student body, Phil Redmond, has certainly demonstrated tremendous ability during his years at North. He has been a member of the Key Club for four years and served as president his senior year. He has participated in World Affairs for three years where he has won several awards and was elected treasurer his senior year. During his junior year, Phil was a Junior Marshall and was inducted into the Beta Club. He was also elected as vice-president his senior year. Some day he hopes to be a politician after he completes his studies at UNC-CH.

1) A bright, sunny day brings out the best in everyone. 2) Spinach is a word that is best if not mentioned in front of Leslie Hawks. 3) Chuck Brackett cages himself a woman. 4) Pep rallies really show the pride of being a Senior!

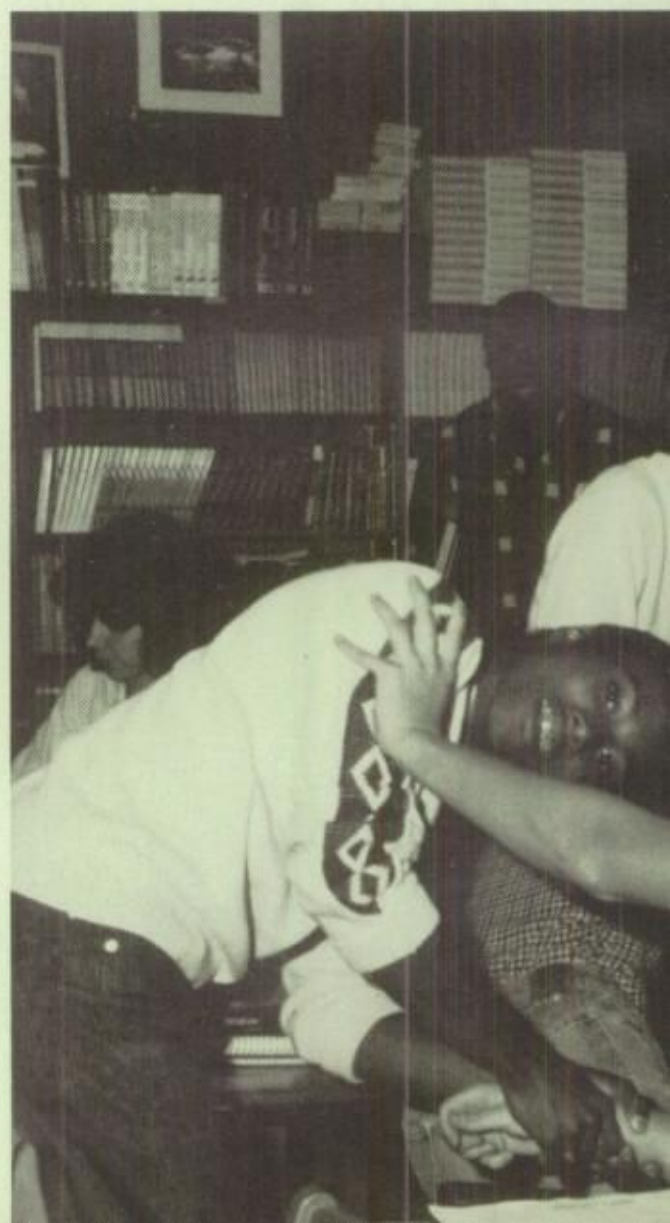

A Busy Lady

Dionne Colbert has her hours filled with sports. She has played volleyball for three years, basketball for four years, (three of which were varsity) and run track for two years. During her junior and senior years she made the All-Tournament team during the annual WSIC Holiday Tournament. Dee Professes she will really miss her friends next year while at Chapel Hill, but is ready to get her post-graduate studies started. Dee lives with her mother, Adriene Mason, in Statesville.

A Remarkable Athlete

Robert Baker is a member of the senior class that will never be forgotten because of the way he has presented himself all over the state as a champion runner. Robert has captured first place in the two-mile two years straight. In December, he went to St. Louis, Missouri to compete in the National Junior Olympics and placed fourth in the nation in that event. The summer of his sophomore year, he went to Jamaica for training which he called exciting. Robert credits all his abilities to God and his supportive parents, Leo and Margie Baker of Union Grove. Robert plans to attend N.C. State University to participate in their track program.

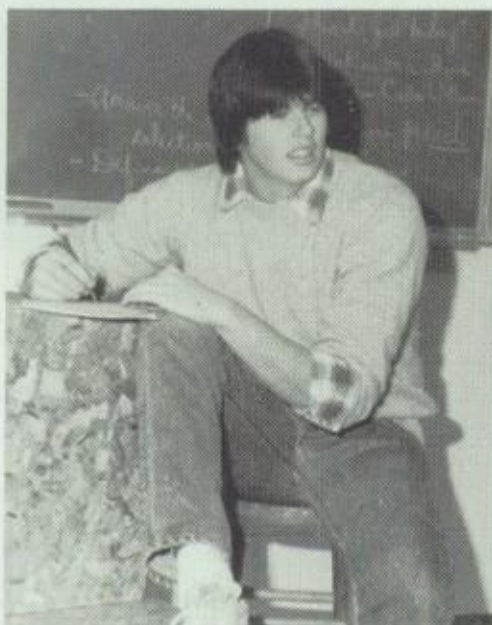

Sing It Again

Melanie Baker has certainly been involved at North. Her talents in music have been exhibited through the band, both the marching and the concert. She was also a drum major her senior year which she enjoyed but admitted was hard. Along with Melanie's participation in the band, she is also a member of FCS where she serves as treasurer. Her plans after graduation include attending N.C. State University to study poultry science. Melanie lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Baker of Stony Point.

1) Lunch gives Amy Wooten and Brett Goodman a chance to catch up on the day's news. 2) Pam White can break all typing speed records ever set. 3) Dede LeVan finds standing at the teacher's desk more enjoyable than sitting at her own. 4) Todd Houston waits calmly for the bell which seems to take forever. 5) English class doesn't normally include this type of behavior. 6) Barry Godfrey and Sarah Moore enjoy lunch because of the chance to sit quietly and talk with friends.

It's All in A Day's Work

To most people, Nathan Gwaltney is a free spirit which walks down the hall singing funny songs. Few people are privileged enough to see the talent that Nathan possesses. Through his art, his care-free personality is expressed. Along with art, Nathan enjoys rock music and spends much of his spare time at the beach, taking a jacuzzi or four-wheeling. In the fall, he plans to enter East Carolina to study art.

1) Football games are a good place for friends like Alicia Wise and David Chambers to get together. 2) Cindy Speece and Tonya Goforth have a question. 3) Julie Everidge can often be found at her desk studying. 4) Wendy Pulliam reports to school undercover. 5) Harold Smith refuses to take anymore of Mr. Stobbe's "Hamlet" tests. 6) Tony Rosby caught that Pepsi spirit. 7) Mark Wellman is deep in thought.

Gaining Altitude Through Academics

Tami Jordan has been a participant in such clubs as Keywanettes, World Affairs, Beta, and French. She is currently Keywanette president, vice-president of World Affairs. She also served as sophomore class vice-president, president of the junior class, and secretary of the Student Body. She has won several awards such as best delegate in Model UN and was selected the Iredell county Morehead nominee and Century III contest winner.

Foot Loose And Fancy Free

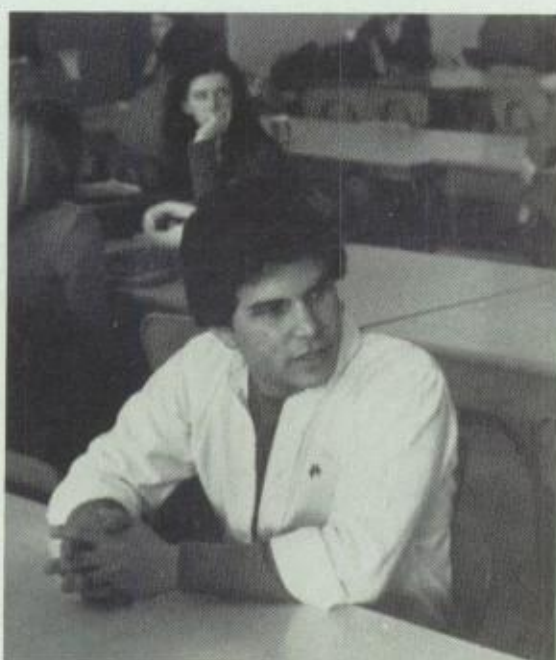

Caroline Matthews, the daughter of Fred and Peggy Matthews, remembers the saying, "Spirit is the will to win, so don't give up and don't give in." She really believes that and her activeness at North shows it. She has cheered for five years and loves it. Caroline is involved in the World Affairs and Jr. Boosters Clubs. She is vice-president of Student Government and treasurer of the Keywanettes. Elon is her college choice and she plans on majoring in human services.

Easy To Be Me

Todd Mason, son of Larry and Claudia Mason, is always looking for adventure and hopes to find it in the Air Force. He really likes school and admits that he will miss it, his friends, and all the fun he has had. He is president of the Jr. Boosters and attends all of the sports events that he can. Todd enjoys New Wave music like Adam and the Ants, and The Cars. Since the Air Force is in Todd's plans for the future, we are sure that all of the hard work it contains will not hinder his outlook on life or his friendly attitude.

Making The Sound

Rockie Rash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rash, has been interested in music for four years. He is a member of the North Iredell Chorus where he sings bass. He also is a member of the jazz band, playing the lead guitar.

Outside school, Rockie also plays lead guitar for a band named Precious Metal.

In addition to playing music, Rockie is also very talented in writing music. The GHS Talent Record Producing Company, which works out of Ohio, has discovered Rockie's ability and is reviewing his material. Perhaps a star is born at North.

Being a cheerleader for 5 years, Chaketa Jackson, age 16, describes it as "just plain fun." She has been a varsity cheerleader for two years. This past summer she won the Most Outstanding Golden Eagle Cheerleader award at a cheerleading camp at UNCC. Her future plans are to further her education at UNCC and major in business administration.

A Claim To Fame

Alice Houpe has a great interest in the performing arts. She has been a part of the drama class at North for two years which has led to her participation in Governor's School this past summer at West Salem College in Winston-Salem. She stated, "It was a wonderful experience, both academically and emotionally." This experience also increased her appreciation of love, talent, and good friends.

Playing Tennis

David Wise is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wise, and his main interest is playing tennis. During the summer, David won the Catawba Valley Invitational Tournament. In addition to tennis, David also enjoys swimming, drawing and traveling. His future plans include attending NC State University to major in computer programming — that is, if he is not a professional tennis player.

Heading For Greatness

Dirk Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Robertson, of Cool Spring, attended Governors' School at West Salem to study instrumental music. His comment on Governors' School was, "I feel this was a rewarding experience and it proved to be a great benefit to me." He has played the oboe for three years and has won an award for most outstanding band member in both his freshman and sophomore years. Some of Dirk's interests are reading and church youth involvement. This past May he attended the Hugh O'Brien youth seminar at Belmont Abbey College. He is also active in the Key Club and FCS Club at North.

A Wrestling Tradition

The Class of '84 has many outstanding athletes, one of whom is Brad Thomas. Brad, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roany Thomas of Statesville, began wrestling in the eighth grade. In the ninth grade, he wrestled Varsity in the 138 lbs. weight division and then moved up to the 147 lbs. weight class. Also in his freshman year, Brad received two awards: Most Outstanding Freshman and Most Improved Wrestler. Brad attended a wrestling camp at Appalachian State University this past summer. Brad's interest and ability are encouraged by members of his family. Brad's father, Roany Thomas, wrestled for North Carolina State University, and Brad's older brother, Ben, wrestled here at North.

Dana has entered her bread and canned goods and shown her steer at the Iredell County Agricultural Fair. She has won twelve blue, one red, and one green ribbon. Dana sang "You Can't Get A Man With A Gun" at Carowinds, another 4-H activity. She has attended N.C. congress, district meetings, and 4-H camp. Dana is president of her club and recreation leader for the county. Dana attends Providence United Methodist Church where she plays for her youth group's softball team. She lives with her parents, J.B. and Dottie Rash.

Parting Words From Raider Supporters

To all my close friends: You've made my years at North very special. Thanks for the good times we've had and the memories we've made. I love ya all! Teresa Feimster

To everyone who helped out and the contestants of the 1981 NIHS pageant: We put in many long hours and lots of hard work but the good times made it worthwhile. Love ya all. Teresa.

Beth: In the past eight years I've known you, we've grown to be a part of each other. We've shared so much together. Don't forget all the good times. Thanks for being you. I love ya babe. Teresa.

Amy: We have walked as one on a straight and sometimes twisted path, now that path is about to separate — each leading in a direction all its own; but in our minds we are one — still on that ever eternal path. Love ya. Beth.

Tami: Your friendship these past three years have meant more to me than you'll ever know. Thank you, Chuck.

Lisa S.: Thanks for the rootin', tootin' times. Remember our special commercial. Love, Mel.

Karen G.: Love ya bunches, you'll never know. Mr. X.

Tami: Thanks so much for everything; you'll never know how much I've counted on you. Be the greatest and I'll always be there for you. Love, Phil.

Tammy Morrison: If anyone has ever been special to me, it's you. You are truly a special friend that I'll long remember. Thanks for all the good times that we've had together and remember that I LOVE YOU. Mark C.

Beth and Teresa: You two are the greatest. That says it all. Love, Phil.

Wendy: Here's a hug and thanks to a special friend. I love ya lots, Janet.

Jesse: Thanks for all the special memories. Together this is only the beginning. Love forever, Annette.

Congratulations Caroline: We knew you could do it. We just didn't know how long it would take. We love you. Mom, Dad, and Travis.

Caroline: I wish for you only the good things in life. Make your dreams come true. Love, Phil.

To Carol Lackey: You are a very special friend and I wish you the very best. Shelia.

Teresa: You have been the sunshine of a day that is about to pass and the glimmer of hope of all tomorrows. Remember to take a count, dream, and succeed. I love you, Beth.

Shelly and Ann: Two of the best friends I could ever have. I love ya, Tracey.

To Tawana: Thanks for sharing your love with me and being there all the times I couldn't be with you. I hope that our love will last forever. Love ya always, Charles.

To Shelly: Through the past year a great friendship has become a part of us. It has brought memories I will always cherish. Thanks for being you, the best friend in the world to me. I love ya, Ann.

Alicia: Life is for people like you: live it to the fullest. Remember me and the great times. Love, Phil.

Phil: Because I took a moment to speak, and you took a second to smile, a tiny part of me will leave with you, and a little bit of you will stay. Thanks for being there when I needed you. Cherish "our" memories and don't ever forget "moi." Love, Alicia.

Carla: Although I may not always show it, you mean the world to me. Let's never forget each other, we have a whole life ahead of us. I love you, David W.

To Terry Carmony: I'll always remember burnt popcorn, P.G. soap, Friday the 13th's, and Friday night parties, freezing our "areva derchies" off, writing "84" all over the road, and we still haven't found my heel in the cow pasture yet, but most of all I'll remember the very deep and caring friendship we've shared over the years. Thank you for always being there T.T. and helping me over all the hard times and being one heck of a friend. Love ya, C.Y. P.S. Speedy, H.M.R.C.Y.H?

To Joan (Alias Erica Brooks) Masters: Sometimes it seems like our best friends change over night and before we know it we're two completely different people, but I'll always remember the endless hours of talking and blind puppy love for that N.Y. star that shone far away, and how could I ever forget the Doobie Brothers or all the dreams we shared. I'll always remember all the things and more because deep down inside we never really change, so in my heart our friendship still burns bright. Thanks for the memories I'll never forget. Gina.

To Speedy Jane and Gooberette: Thanks for all the wild times at lunch. Nobody could ask for two better friends than you two. Love ya, Gina.

Alicia: Well, Love, I know you've really enjoyed your BIG year and fulfilled every wish as a Senior. I Love You and I want to say thanks for being the kind of daughter every mother dreams of having. You're the tops! Love, Mom.

Alicia: You are an individual, completely unique. A composite of everything and everyone that ever touched your life. And though you would never change any part of you, no one could be with you without being changed by you. We love you! Joey, Jeff, Todd and Tommy.

Karen: What will I ever do without you? You have been so close to me that it will feel like part of myself will be missing next year. Although they say "all good things must come to an end," our friendship will never end. We may be distantly apart but our hearts will ALWAYS be inseparable! Love, Carla.

David: I could never ask you to change a thing about yourself. You are so special and I'm glad I had the chance to find it out for myself. Honestly, I never thought anyone could ever mean so much to me. You're one person that I hope I never have to say "good-bye." You're my sunshine! Love you, Carla.

To Vicky and Hank: Good luck in your new life. Cindy.

Michael Holcomb: Thanks for being a great friend and all you have done. Mike.

Coach Beane: Best of luck to ya. Sonya.

Phil: All I can really say is thank you for your friendship and understanding. Chuck.

Tracey: Just want you to know that you are and always will be my best friend. Love, Mary.

Billy (Peter Paul): For memories that are beautiful and all your love . . . I look forward to "our" I, love, you. Renae.

Kelly: Thanks for being such a good friend. You really are. Mary.

Randy Lambert: Thanks for being a friend. Mike.

To Janet Branch: Congratulations. You made it. Love, Shelia.

Alicia: As the song says, "Thank you for being a friend . . ." You're a pal and a real confidant. That about says it all except that I'll always be here if you need me. Love, Chuck.

Randy: I'll always be here with open arms. I hope you can see what your love means to me, thanks for being you and Fred. I will love you forever, Sonya.

Card,
 Well here is to the class of '82. I thought this year was really nice. I made two very good friends this year.
 You + Willard. Thanks for making this year very memorable. Good luck in colleg. Your favorite

 Amanda
 Sloan

Carol,
 Summed up because of short time!
 I've enjoyed our friendship. Through humanities etc. Please stay sweet and don't be too rough on Bryan. A.F.F.

Carol,
 I'm going to miss you after schools out, so you'll have to come see me - we'll keep in touch...
 I don't know what I'm suppose to write? Take care & live life to the fullest and get out of it all you can. Reach for your highest goal
 And someday I know you'll reach
 it. God Bless you & yours

Love,

Jamie Branel

Carol,

It is time that we must say farewell to a part of our lives. That part being the friends we have spent a large part of our lives with. Remember the fun times at the Playhouse Theatre. May God ever bless you and good luck in the future.

A Friend,

David Patterson

Carol,
It's been great getting to know you & this year your such a great person, your

Carol,

I hope that you have had an 'enjoyable' twelve years of school. I'm glad I know you as a friend. May life hold everything you want it to. Have a good summer and enjoy your life. I'll be seeing you.

Love,
Daneel

Carol,

It's been a great year in Rucker's class. Wasn't it funny that you made good grades until you changed tables? I don't really care. Have a good year and lifetime.
